

BIOTRAIN 750

Orientation and Introduction to RCR for Biomedical Scientists

Friday, August 26, 2022 8:00AM-12:00PM

Great Hall, Trent Semans Center for Health Education

- 7:45 Check-in and Continental Breakfast
- 8:00-8:15 Welcome and Introduction
Colin Duckett, PhD, Vice Dean for Basic Science
- 8:15-9:15 Graduate School: Expectations, Professionalism, and Resources for Students
Amy Kostrewa, OBGE Director
Erika Crosby, PhD, OBGE RCR Curriculum Manager
Beth Sullivan, PhD, Associate Dean for Research Training
- 9:15-9:45 A Whole You: Integrating Wellness and Professional Development into Your Graduate Training
Kristin Russell, OBGE Assistant Director of Trainee Development
Nationally Certified Integrated Health and Wellness Coach
- 9:45-10:00 BREAK – *Coffee, Juice, Water, and Snacks available
- 10:00-10:30 Diversity, Equity, Inclusion, and Cultural Awareness at Duke
Johnna Frierson, PhD, Assistant Dean for Graduate and Postdoctoral Diversity and Inclusion
- 10:30-11:00 Your Role in Keeping Yourself, the Lab, and Duke’s Community Safe
Tristan White, MS/CIH/CSP, Duke Occupational & Environmental Safety Office (OESO)
- 11:00-11:50 Research Data Management
Raul Doyle, PSM, Program Manager of Data Policy, Duke Office of Scientific Integrity
- 12:00 LUNCH: Meet the OBGE Peer Mentors - *Your Guides Through BIOTRAIN 701 and the First Year of Grad School