Cost of Attendance FAQ's:

- What can I do if my financial aid isn't enough to cover my cost?
- What if my rent/mortgage is more than what my school estimated?
- How do I even live?

If your financial aid isn't enough to cover your cost, please contact our office and let's talk about what costs you are incurring that are causing you a financial strain. We can look at items such as parking permits, medical and dental co-pays, and if your rent/mortgage exceed what is estimated in the cost of attendance (COA), we can certainly review your individual COA. The monthly housing amount in the COA is $1,235. (Lease or mortgage documents must be in student's name only).

The current COA provides students with an estimated monthly refund amount of $2,256 who accept their full financial aid award package. Cost of Attendance includes: tuition, fees, books/supplies, estimated loan fees, personal and miscellaneous, transportation, food, housing, and health insurance if accepted.
