Upper-level Graduate Students—Third-year and Beyond Supported by PhD mentor. Stipend amount, source and the mechanism for paying tuition and fees will vary depending on the college/school to which the student's official PhD department belongs. The financial details for the medical school basic science departments will be the same as listed above for the two MSTP-supported graduate years (with the exception of tuition, which is reduced to $12,000 per year for graduate school years four and above). But these figures may be different for other colleges/schools within the university. Students in other Duke schools/colleges should check with their PhD departments for financial details pertinent to their situations.
