

BIOTRAIN 750: Orientation and Introduction to Responsible Conduct of Research (RCR) for Biomedical Scientists

Monday, August 18

Time/Location	Topic(s)	Presenter(s)
8:00 – 8:15 AM LSRC B101	Check-in, Continental Breakfast, and Meet Your Gateway Group and Peer Mentor
8:15 – 8:45 AM LSRC B101	Welcome  Introduction to Graduate School Expectations and PhD Student Survival Guide to the First Year	Dr. Beth Sullivan, Associate Dean for Research Training
8:45 – 9:15 AM LSRC B101	Becoming a Responsible Scientist – OBGE's RCR and R&R Training	Dr. Erika Crosby, RCR and R&R Curriculum Manager – OBGE
9:15 – 9:30 AM LSRC Hall of Science	Break
9:30 – 10:15 AM LSRC B101	Resources:  Trainee Tracking Tool (T3): A Digital Roadmap for Rotations, Your PhD Goals, Grad School Progress, and Professional Development  Overview of Advising, Coaching, and Professional Development Opportunities and Resources	Dr. Krissi Hewitt, Director – OBGE  Dr. Calla Telzrow, Associate Director of Curriculum, Advising, and Experiential Learning – OBGE
10:15 – 10:25 AM LSRC Hall of Science	Break
10:25 – 10:55 AM LSRC B101	LabArchives Overview and Demonstration	Dr. Matt Mehlenbacher, Research Security Specialist – Duke Office of Scientific Integrity
10:55 – 11:00 AM LSRC B101	Biomedical Graduate Student Council (BGSC) Introduction	BGSC Executive Board
11:00 – 11:15 AM LSRC B101	Duke Graduate Student Union Presentation	DGSU Representative Noah Jacobs
11:15 – 11:30 AM	Walk to TSCHE 6 th Floor with your Gateway Group and Peer Mentor
11:30 AM – 12:45 PM TSCHE 6 th Floor	Faculty poster session with light refreshments	SoM PhD program faculty