Required On-line Safety and Compliance Training Modules
(required annually unless otherwise indicated)

The following modules must be completed on the OESO website, http://www.safety.duke.edu/OnlineTraining/CurrentTrainingRequired.asp

Note: If you do not see the required training listed when you log in, please select the “Courses Available On-line” tab on the left side of the page.

- Compliance Orientation On-line (first year only)
  (Compliance Update Training during subsequent years)
- Chemical Safety for Clinicians (once every 5 years)
- OSHA Blood Borne Pathogens (BBP)
- Environment of Care (EOC)
- Infection Control
- iMRI Safety for Perioperative Staff
- HIPAA Privacy and Security Training for Clinicians
- Fire/Life Safety
- Tuberculosis (TB) Safety Training
- Hospital Incident Command System (HICS)
- Radiation Safety for Ancillary Staff

The following compliance/safety module must be completed annually through the Learning Management System, https://vmw-lmsweb.duhs.duke.edu/SabaLogin

- Specimen Collection – Beaker Rollout

Log in using your Net ID and password; Search the Catalog for the course

- From the default Home page, locate the Catalog Search section in the upper right of the page.
- Enter 00052637 into the Search field and click Search
- Step 4: Register for an Offering
- After performing a Search, your search results will be provided in list form.
- Please read the course description as it will provide information on what is needed to successfully complete the course.
- Click the blue Register link
- After clicking Register a Registration Confirmation page should display.
- You can launch the course using the Launch Content link
- The course content will launch in a separate window. Complete the content as instructed.
- Use the X in the upper right to close and save your responses.