Investigators,

Here are recently released NIH and other FOAs. FOAs for junior or new investigators are shown in red. Duke opportunities are shown in blue. The list of all active NIH RFAs and PAs, respectively, sorted by institute, can be found at: http://tinyurl.com/757qkez and http://tinyurl.com/c562oks.

Preparing a grant? Let us help. The RDC will review your research plans and help you improve them. Email michael.gunn@duke.edu to request.

If you want to be added or removed from this distribution list, email michael.gunn@duke.edu and make your request in the body of the email.

Note: NIH FOAs now include information as to whether the FOA supports clinical trials. Here, this is designated by the following abbreviations: CTNO - Clinical Trial Not Allowed; CTR - Clinical Trial Required; CTO - Clinical Trial Optional
