External Scholarship Information

Albemarle Hospital Volunteer Scholarship
Available scholarships for Health Fields for applicants living in the following NC counties: Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Gates, Pas Medical Scholarship and two $3,000 Allied Health Scholarships available. Contact information: 252-384-4676.

AMA Foundation

Leadership Award - recognizes medical students, residents/fellows, and early career physicians who demonstrate strong nonclinical skills in advocacy, community service, and/or education. Applications are due November 6 and will be available at www.amafoundation.org/go/excellence.

Seed Grant Research Program - provides one-year grants of up to $2,500 to medical students, residents and fellows to help them conduct basic science or clinical research projects. Grants will be awarded for research on Cardiovascular/Pulmonary Diseases, HIV/AIDS, and Pancreatic Cancer. Applications are due by December 5 and are available at www.amafoundation.org/go/seedgrants.

Joan Giambalvo Research Grant Program provides one-year grants of up to $10,000 to medical students, residents, fellows, and physicians to investigate issues that will advance the progress of women in the medical profession and medical students. Applications are due by February 25 and will be available at www.amafoundation.org/go/giambalvo.

AMWA-American Medical Women’s Association
Various scholarships available to women medical students. Medical education loans, Community Service Scholarships, Research Paper Awards, Mentoring Awards, Overseas Grants, and Reproductive Health Initiatives. For additional information on these scholarships and deadlines, please contact 703-838-0500 (ext. 3305) or email mglanz@amwa-doc.org.

American Society of Hematology
American Society of Hematology (ASH) Minority Medical Student Award Program (MMSAP). The MMSAP provides funding to medical students to engage them in the study of hematology and to help them attain valuable knowledge in the field. A $5,000 stipend, and $2,000 travel allowance are available. For more information, please contact Elisa Miller at 202-776-0544 or hematology.org/Awards.

Arthur N. Wilson, MD Scholarship
Award to students that attended high school in Southeast Alaska. This is a $5,000 scholarship that may be awarded annually. Students must prove academic excellence. Application information is available at the Duke SoM Financial Aid Office.

ASCO Medical Student Rotation (MSR)
Funded by Susan G.Komen for the Cure. Provides 8-10 week clinical or clinical research oncology rotations for U.S. medical students from underrepresented populations. For additional information and/or to apply visit www.ascocancerfoundation.org/MSR.

ASCO Resident Travel Award (RTA)
Funded by Susan G.Komen for the Cure. Provides financial support for residents from underrepresented populations to attend ASCO annual meetings. For more information and/or to apply, please visit www.ascocancerfoundation.org/RTA.
Berkshire AHEC

Revolving scholarship loan award to medical students who reside in Berkshire county Massachusetts and who are attending schools in the US and Canada. Award is up to $5,000 and renewable annually.

Requests for application should be directed to the Berkshire District Medical Society Scholarship Committee, c/o Berkshire AHEC, Inc., 60 Charles Street, Pittsfield, MA 01201, or by calling (413)447-2417. the deadline each year is April 15.

Buckfire Diversity Scholarships

Medical School Diversity Scholarship Program recognize medical students who promote ethnic diversity in their community.

The scholarship award is $2000.00 and you can find the application and due date on their website at https://www.buckfirelaw.com/library/scholarships.cfm.

Dr. Frank and Florence Marino Scholarship

Applicants must have attended CT public and, years, graduated from a CT public or parochia to attend medical school. Up to 10 awards are available. The scholarship website at www.hfpg.org/scholarship. DEADLINE MAY 5, 2017

Contact information: Sarah Carlson at 860-548-1888

Dr. Grover White Scholarship

Awarded through Community Foundation. Deadline is March 1st. Applicants must be residents of County, North Carolina or York, South Carolina. Applicant to attend medical school. Applications are available in the Duke School of Medicine Financial Aid Office or www.cfgaston.org/documents/whiteApplication.pdf

Health Professions Scholarship Program

The U.S. Army offers the F.Edward Hebert Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program (HPSP). If you are planning a career in health program, it pays to look into the Army’s HPSP monthly stipend of more than $2000.00.

Health Care recruiter at healthcare.goarmy.com or call 1-800-USA-ARMY.

The Koch Kellan Scholarship

Future ophthalmologists to become part of an emerging group of ophthalmic leaders and to continue the legacy. The Koch Kellan Scholarship is a $10,000.00 award distributed annually by Parago BioTeck, Inc. to one second or third year medical (MD) student committed to pursuing a career in ophthalmology.

All applications must be postmarked by February 1.

More information about the scholarship can be found at http://paragonbioteck.com/gives/kochkellan/

Howard G. Lapsley Memorial Scholarship

Scholarships are awarded annually by the Muhlberg Regional Medical Center Board of Directors to provide financial aid to one or more deserving candidates enrolled in a degreed program in medicine, or dentistry. Application information is available at www.jfkmc.org/jfk-foundation/scholarships. Deadline is May 1.

Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Chicago

Jewish Federation Academic Scholarship Program - awarded to Jewish college and post-graduate students with financial need. For eligibility information and application forms go to http:/jvschicago.org/scholarship.
For additional questions, call the Scholarship . Deadline for application is February 1.

Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia

Applications and information sheets for scholarships awarded by the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia are available and can be downloaded from their website at https://www.jewishphilly.org/programs-services/educational-scholarships. They encourage the most needed students to apply, as funds are limited. Contact Jennifer Brier at jbrier@jewishphilly.org or 215-832-0528.

Kaiser Permanente Scholarship

A total of six $5,000 scholarships to fourth year medical students selected for their commitment to and achievement in community/leadership and/or population based research. Must be a third year medical student in good academic standing, interested in seeking residency in Northern California, able to participate in a one-month Kaiser Permanente facility in Northern medical school. Visit residency.kp.org/ncal for application and additional information.

KAMA Scholarship

The Korean American Medical Association has a scholarship up to $1,000 available to the applicant chosen that best meets the criteria of the scholarship. All first, second, and third-year medical students in good standing, interested in clinical or basic science research or community outreach. Applications are available the first of each year at www.koreanama.org.

Lehigh County Medical Auxiliary Scholarship

$2,500 award to a full-time medical student who is a resident of Lehigh County, PA. Application materials may be printed directly from www.foundationpamedsoc.org.

Lycoming County Medical Society Scholarship

$2,500 up to three awards to a full-time medical student who is a resident of Lycoming County, PA. Application materials may be printed directly from www.foundationpamedsoc.org.

Dr. Henderson D. Mabe, Jr. Scholarship fund

Established for students that graduated from public high school. Preference is given to those residence around Erwin, NC. Applications are due March 31. Information can be found at www.nccommunityfoundation.org/Scholarship?county=32.

Thomas Brown McClelland Medical Scholarship

The Rotary Club of Miami offers one scholarship per year to a student that was a graduate of a Miami-Dade County Public or Private High School. Additional information can be found at www.miamirotary.org.

MetLife Foundation & National Medical Fellowship

MetLife has established a need-based, merit based award program to recognize and reward underrepresented minority medical students for outstanding academic achievement. Candidates must be enrolled beyond the first year in an accredited MD program. Students must be U.S. citizens, a member of groups considered underrepresented in medicine by the AMA: Alaska Natives, African-Americans, Hawaiian natives, American Indians, Mexican-Americans and mainland Puerto Ricans. Nominees must demonstrate academic excellence, leadership, potential for distinguished contributions in medicine and financial need. Candidates must attend school or have legal residence in the following cities or the designated surrounding areas: Phoenix AZ, Los Angeles CA, San Francisco CA, Denver CO,.
Montgomery County Medical Society Scholarship
$1,000 awarded to full-time medical student. Applicant must be a resident of Montgomery graduation or for at least four years prior to n printed directly from www.foundationpamed

Myrtle Siegfried, MD, and Michael Vigilante Scholarship
$1,000 awarded to full-time medical student. Applicant must be a resident of Lehigh, Berks, Application materials may be printed directly

Native American Health Educational Fund
Funding available to native Americans accept. For more information, please send request to

Sam Perry Memorial Scholarship
Applicants must be Granville County, North C a career in the allied health care field. Prograi clinical laboratory science, physical therapy, c pharmacy, physician assistant, or nurse pract must be received by 4pm on April 28, 2017 fo online at www.ghsFoundation.org/Scholarship

Pisacano Scholars Leadership Scholarship
Applications are due March 1. Applications ar Scholarships will be awarded to outstanding r Students need to have made a commitment t will enter their fourth year in medical school i $28,000 for the 2017-2018 academic year.

Joanna F Reed Medical Scholarship
The scholarship shall be for one academic ye by the Selection committee based on the reci must reside from Alabama or Northwest Flor into a private medical school. Applications are Aid Office. Deadline is May 14, 2018.

Paul & Daisy Soros Fellowship for New Americans
Up to $90,000 over a two year period: $25,0C year for tuition. Applicants must be naturalize US, be a child of two immigrant parents, one have a bachelor’s degree or be a college sen age of 30. Application deadline is November www.pdsoros.org.

Robert A Team Scholarship
Scholarships will be granted to individuals wh pursuing education and/or training for the pu care of a direct and personal nature. Preferen Lexington/Davidson County, NC areas. Applications are available in the SoM financial Aid Office. Deadline for submission is May 1. Inquiries can be made to annhmcmurray@gmail.com.

Tillman Scholar
Founded in 2008, the Tillman Scholars program supports active duty service members, veterans, and their families by investing in their higher education. The scholarship covers educational expenses, including tuition and fees, books, and living expenses. Application due date: March 1, 2017 at 11:50pm PT. To start your application and read more about this scholarship, go to their website at http://pattillmanfoundation.org/apply-to-be-a-scholar/.

Southern Medical Association Alliance
The Southern Medical Association Alliance Society of 1924 Medical School Scholarship for 2015 will provide financial assistance in the form of a $2000.00 scholarship for tuition or other required expenses to a 3rd year medical student who exhibits both academic and leadership qualities in need of financial aid to be accepted. Applications must be received by the Review Committee on or before September 23rd. For questions, please contact Kendra Blackmon at kblackmon@sma.org or (800) 423-4992, ext. 164.

Wellsford and Mildred Clark Memorial Scholarship
Awards up to $20,000 will be awarded to the best applicant that meets the requirements of the trust established for the scholarship. Applicants must be a resident of CT for five years, third-year medical student, enrolled in a not-for-profit medical school, have financial need, academic excellence, extracurricular and interests in community service. Applications must be completed by April 30th. Information can be found on their website at www.waterburymedicalassociation.org.

Ruth G. White P.E.O. Scholarship
Applicants must be female residents of California. Awards are based on academic excellence, integrity, character, and financial need. Applications are available at www.peocalifornia.org.

William B. Bean Student Research Award
Must be current students at accredited medical schools in the U.S. or Canada. The research award is $1,500. Successful applicants may be invited to present their research findings at a subsequent meeting of the American Osler Society. Deadline for submission is March 1. For additional information, please visit www.americanosler.org.

Worcester District Medical Society Scholarship
Applicants must be legal residents of Central Massachusetts. Application information can be found at www.wdms.org. Deadline is July 31.
Applicants living in the following NC counties: Camden, Chowan, Currituck, Dare, Gates, Pasquotank, and Perquimans. One $5,000 Medical Scholarship and two $3,000 Allied Health Scholarships available. Contact Leadership Award - recognizes medical students, residents/fellows, and early career physicians who demonstrate strong nonclinical skills in advocacy, community service, and will be available at

Year grants of up to $2,500 to medical conduct basic science or clinical research projects on Cardiovascular/Pulmonary applications are due by December 5 and are grants.

Provides one-year grants of up to $10,000 to physicians to investigate issues that will advance the needs of women physicians by February 25 and will be available at ical students. Medical education loans, Awards, Mentoring Awards, Overseas or additional information on these 3-838-0500 (ext. 3305) or email ity Medical Student Award Program (MMSAP). lents to engage them in the study of knowledge in the field. A $5,000 stipend, more information, please contact Elisa Miller in Southeast Alaska. This is a $5,000 udents must prove academic excellence. SoM Financial Aid Office.

ides 8-10 week clinical or clinical research from underrepresented populations. For www.ascocancerfoundation.org/MSR.

ides financial support for residents from annual meetings. For more information foundation.org/RTA.
students who reside in Berkshire county Massachusetts and who are attending medical and osteopathic medicine schools in the US and Canada. Award is up to $5,000 and renewable annually. Requests for application should be directed to the Berkshire District Medical Society Scholarship Committee, c/o Berkshire AHEC, Inc., 60 Charles Street, Pittsfield, MA 01201, or by calling (413)447-2417. The deadline each year is Med School Diversity Scholarship Program is the law firm's initiative to recognize medical students who promote ethnic diversity in their community. You can find the application and due date on their website at https://www.buckfirelaw.com/library/scholarships.cfm.

Applicants must have attended CT public and/or parochial schools for at least 8 years, graduated from a CT public or parochial high school, and been accepted to attend medical school. Up to 10 awards ranging from $1,000 to $2,000 are available. The scholarship website at www.hfpg.org/scholarship. DEADLINE MAY 5, 2017

Contact information: Sarah Carlson at 860-548-1888

Awarded through Community Foundation. Deadline to submit the application is March 1st. Applicants must be residents of Gaston, Cleveland or Lincoln County, North Carolina or York, South Carolina and who will attend an educational institution in North or South Carolina. Applicants must be seeking an advanced medical degree in medical related fields. Applications are available in the Duke School of Medicine Financial Aid Office or www.cfgaston.org/documents/whiteApplication.pdf

The U.S. Army offers the F. Edward Hebert Armed Forces Health Professions Scholarship Program. If you are planning a career in health care or are currently enrolled in a graduate health care program, it pays to look into the Army's HPSP. You could earn a full-tuition scholarship, plus a monthly stipend. The first step is as simple as contacting your local Army Health Care recruiter at healthcare.goarmy.com or call 1-800-USA-ARMY.

Future ophthalmologists to become part of an emerging group of ophthalmic leaders and to continue the legacy. The Koch Kellan Scholarship is a $10,000.00 award distributed annually by Parago BioTeck, Inc. to one second or third year medical (MD) student committed to pursuing a career in ophthalmology. All applications must be postmarked by February 1. More information about the scholarship can be found at the following link: http://paragonbioteck.com/gives/kochkellan/

Scholarships are awarded annually by the Muhlberg Regional Medical Center Board of Directors to provide financial aid to one or more deserving candidates enrolled in a degreed program in medicine, osteopathy and dentistry. Application information is available at www.jfkmc.org/jfk-foundation/scholarships. Deadline is May 1.

Jewish Federation Academic Scholarship Program - awarded to Jewish college and post-graduate students with financial need. For eligibility information and application forms go to http:/jvschicago.org/scholarship.
For additional questions, call the Scholarship Administrator at 312-673-3444 or email: jvscholarship@jvschicago.org.

Applications and information sheets for scholarships awarded by the Jewish Federation of Greater Philadelphia may be downloaded from their website at https://www.jewishphilly.org/programs-services/educational-scholarships. They encourage the most needed students to apply, as funds are limited. Contact Jennirfer Brier at jbrier@jewishphilly.org or 215-832-0528.

A total of six $5,000 scholarships to fourth year medical students selected for their commitment to and achievement in community/leadership and/or population-based research. Must be a third year medical student in good academic standing, a California resident, able to participate in a one-month Kaiser Permanente facility in Northern California during the final year of medical school. Visit residency.kp.org/ncal for application and additional information.

The Korean American Medical Association has a scholarship up to $1,000 available to the applicant chosen that best meets the criteria of the scholarship. All 1st, 2nd, and 3rd year medical students in good standing, interested in clinical or basic science research or community outreach. Applications are available the first of each year.

$2,500 award to a full-time medical student who is a resident of Lehigh County, PA. Application materials may be printed directly from www.foundationpamedsoc.org.

$2,500 up to three awards to a full-time medical student who is a resident of Lycoming County, PA. Application materials may be printed directly from www.foundationpamedsoc.org.

Established for students that graduated from a Harnett County, North Carolina, public high school. Preference is given to those residents who lived around Erwin, NC. Applications are due March 31. Information about the scholarship can be found at www.nccommunityfoundation.org/Scholarship?county=32.

The Rotary Club of Miami offers one scholarship per year to a student that was a graduate of a Miami-Dade County Public or Private High School. The website for additional information can be found at www.miamirotary.org.

MetLife has established a need-based, merit award program to recognize and reward underrepresented minority medical students for outstanding academic achievement. Candidates must be enrolled beyond the first-year in an accredited MD program. Students must be US citizens, a member of groups to be considered underrepresented in medicine by the AMA: Alaska natives, African-Americans, Native Hawaiians, American Indians, Mexican-Americans and mainland Puerto Ricans. Nominees must demonstrate academic excellence, leadership, potential for distinguished contributions in medicine and financial need. Candidates must also attend school or have legal residence in the following cities or the designated surrounding areas: Phoenix AZ, Miami FL, Tampa FL, Atlanta GA,
Aurora IL, Boston MA, St. Louis MO, Albany NY, Metropolitan NY, Utica NY, Rensselaer NY, Dayton OH, Tulsa OK, Philadelphia PA, Pittsburgh PA, Scranton PA, Warwick RI, Greenville SC, Dallas TX, or Houston TX. Application and additional information is available at: www.nmfonline.org.

$1,000 awarded to full-time medical student attending their first year of medical school. Applicant must be a resident of Montgomery County, Pa at the time of high school graduation or for at least four years prior to medical school. Application materials may be printed directly from www.foundationpamedsoc.org.

$1,000 awarded to full-time medical student attending their first year of medical school. Applicant must be a resident of Lehigh, Berks, or Northampton County, PA. Application materials may be printed directly from www.foundationpamedsoc.org.

Funding available to native Americans accepted into an accredited medical program. For more information, please send request to: NAHEFSCHOLARSHIP@aol.com.

Applicants must be Granville County, North Carolina residents and intend to pursue a career in the allied health care field. Programs eligible for this scholarship include: occupational therapy, radiological science, nursing. Completed application packages for consideration. Applications are available online at www.ghsFoundation.org/ScholarshipApplication.

Applications are due March 1. Applications are available at www.pisacano.org.

Scholarships will be awarded to outstanding medical students for a four-year period. Students need to have made a commitment to the field of family medicine and who will enter their fourth year in medical school in the fall. Maximum scholarship

The scholarship shall be for one academic year and the amount shall be determined by the Selection committee based on the recipients financial situation. Students must reside from Alabama or Northwest Florida, who attend or have been accepted into a private medical school. Applications are available in the Duke SoM Financial

Up to $90,000 over a two year period: $25,000/year for maintenance; up to $20,000/year for tuition. Applicants must be naturalized citizen or hold a green card, if born in the US, be a child of two immigrant parents, one or both of who are naturalized citizens, have a bachelor's degree or be a college senior in good academic standing, and have a maximum age of 30. Application deadline is November 1. Applications are available at

Scholarships will be granted to individuals who demonstrate financial need while pursuing education and/or training for the purpose of delivering primary health care of a direct and personal nature. Preference will be shown to residents of Application materials are available in the SoM financial aid office. Deadline for submission is May 1. Inquiries can be sent to http://pattillmanfoundation.org/apply-to-be-a-scholar/

Founded in 2008, the Tillman Scholars program supports our nation's active duty service members, veterans, and military spouses by investing in their higher education. The scholarship covers educational expenses, including tuition and fees, books, and living expenses. Application due date: March 1, 2017 at 11:50 PM PT. To start your application and read more about this scholarship: http://pattillmanfoundation.org/apply-to-be-a-scholar/

The Southern Medical Association Alliance “Society of 1924 Medical School Scholarship” for 2015 will provide financial assistance in the form of a $2,000.00 scholarship for tuition or other required expenses to a 3rd year medical student who exhibits both academic and leadership qualities in need of financial aid to be accepted. Applications must be received by the Review Committee on or before September 23rd. For questions, please contact Kendra Blackmon at kblackmon@sma.org or (800) 423-4992, ext. 164.

Awards up to $20,000 will be awarded to the best applicant that meets the requirements of the trust established for this scholarship. Applicants must be a resident of CT for five years, third-year medical student, enrolled in a not-for-profit medical school, have financial need, academic excellence, extracurricular and interests in community service. Applications must be completed by April 30th. Further information can be found on their website: www.waterburymedicalassociation.org

Applicants must be female residents of California. Awards are based on academic excellence, integrity, character, and financial need. Applications are available. Applicants must be current students at accredited medical school in the U.S. or Canada. The research award is $1,500. Successful applicants may be invited to present their research findings at a subsequent meeting of the American Osler Society. Deadline for submission is March 1. For additional information, please visit: www.americanosler.org.

Applicants must be legal residents of Central Massachusetts at the time of application. Application information can be found at www.wdms.org. Deadline is July 31.