

STEPHEN P. BOGDIEWIC, PhD, MA
2019 Biosketch

Dr. Stephen Bogdewic is Professor of Family Medicine and Associate Chair for Faculty Affairs and Leadership Development at the University Of North Carolina School of Medicine. He also serves as an Executive leadership Coach in the UNC Office of faculty Affairs and Leadership Development. Prior to joining UNC, Dr. Bogdewic was the Executive Vice Dean and the Dr. George W. Copeland Professor of Family Medicine at Indiana University School of Medicine, where he also held appointments in Medicine, Pediatrics and Public and Environmental Affairs.

Dr. Bogdewic earned a doctorate in adult education and organizational development from the University of North Carolina and his M.A. in Marriage, Family, and Child Counseling from Santa Clara University. In 2012 he received the Association of American Medical Colleges Group on Faculty Affairs Carole J Bland Phronesis Award for dedicated and selfless promotion of faculty vitality. In 2019 he received the Indiana University President's Medal for Distinguished Service.

His scholarly interests include leadership development, faculty vitality, and clinical teaching skills. He is a nationally recognized lecturer, consultant, and educator and is a licensed therapist who maintains an active clinical practice. Prior to his career in academic medicine Dr. Bogdewic served as pilot for seven years in the United States Navy.